RE: Customer testimony

Where do i even start? The title "Realtor" does not even begin to describe the service that Laura provided. Beside a charming and friendly personality she understood exactly our wants and needs and didn't waste our time showing us properties beyond our budget or our stated requirements. We felt that we could have went with almost all the properties she showed us.

Once we made the decision on the property to buy, Laura wasted no time in providing top people and set up a quick execution of the purchase and closing.

Knowing that we were from out of town, Laura has offered referrals of local people and business' from top repair and maintenance personal to helping us with the best choices of utility providers.

Our new home is absolutely perfect for us and everyone else we've had the pleasure of showing it off to believes so as well.

We moved over 500 miles from Burbank in Southern California to Grass Valley in Northern California. Total relocation can be a scary and mistake-filled experience, but Laura Berman gave us the security and knowledge that we once thought only close friends and family could provide. For that matter, we now consider Laura Berman and her family close friends and practically family.

I wouldn't hesitate recommending Laura for a second. I honestly don't think we could have done this without her.

Sincerely,
